By Dorothy McCahn Elsenius

Those lucky vacationers, Tony and Olga Barassi, have recently returned from a two-week tour of the Hawaiian Islands, where they found the weather balmy and warm, the scenery impossibly beautiful, and their stay—all too short.

The Barassis are long-time Albany residents, and well-known in the community. Tony is a past president of the Fratellanza Club in Oakland.

Both the Bands at Albany High will be performing on Friday. The Marching Band will be featured, in full uniform, at the home football game against Del Valle, at 3 p.m. at Cougar Field.

Friday evening, at 8 p.m., the Jazz Band will perform in the Little Theater, as part of the Albany High School Variety Show.

Let's all give these enthusiastic musicians a great big hand, for providing us with such good entertainment. And those of you who will be attending the Veterans' Day Parade in Fremont, will see our Marching Band there, also.

If you are looking ahead to Christmas, a word to the wise—don't miss the Middle School PTA's Flea Market this Saturday, at Albany High School—lots of goodies for sale. Children are also urged to attend, as there will be lots of little gift items especially priced for them.

Also lots of baked goodies, plants and miscellaneous items. Do your shopping early and then stop to rest and buy yourself a delicious treat at the bake sale.

Also this Saturday may be last time you may be able to see members of the Old Time Vaudeville and Dramatic Artists perform, as many of them are getting along in years—however, they still give great performances and can be seen on Oct. 20, at 8:15 p.m., in the Oakland Auditorium. Tickets at $3 per person ($2.50 for senior citizens in groups) are available from Ray Zurluh, 526-9749.

Single, unmarried adults are being invited to join "The Singles," a group meeting at the First Unitarian Church, No. 1 Lawson Rd., Kensington. Membership in the Church is not necessary, and those interested in joining are invited to a Pot Luck dinner, to be held at 6:30 p.m., Fri., Oct. 19 at the Church. For reservations or further information, please call Harold Rosen, 526-3152 or 525-0302.

The group is planning many interesting activities for the coming year, including: theater parties, astrology studies, tours and trips to points of interest in and around the Bay Area, discussion groups (centered around divorce and how to deal with it successfully), sail boating, Sunday luncheons and others. Sounds interesting, doesn't it?

Light City Council Agenda At Monday Night's Meeting

Except for four resolutions the Council introduced and adopted at Monday night's meeting, the balance of agenda items were referred to public hearings and other City departments.

The resolutions included 73-86, executing an agreement with the State Board of Equalization concerning sales tax and penalties; 73-87, setting forth rules and regulations concern-

Fake Boy Scout Collecting Money

Complaints have been received by Albany Scout Masters, Walt Corvello of Troop 12, and Bill Gilreath of Troop 14, concerning a young man who has been soliciting money from Albany householders, for a Boy Scout field trip.

Both Scout Masters want to remind local residents that Boy Scouts do not ask for donations of money under any circumstance.

If anyone comes to your door, asking for money under the guise he is a Boy Scout, please call the Albany Police immediately, at 525-7300.

The application of Cheryl A. and Mike Hayes, and James R. Michaels, for an off-sale general license at Max's Liquors, was referred to Chief of Police James Simmons, for his approval; while the communication from Charles L. O'Connor, vice-president of Yellow Cab Co., requesting an adjustment of Albany taxicab rates, and one from Samuel R. Dows, chairman of the Planning and Zoning Commission, submitting recommendations on a variance application for 555-565-575 Jackson, were referred to public hearings set for October 27 and November 5, respectively.

Council members also approved the renewal, for a ten year period commencing Jan. 1, 1974, of its contract with the Albany Land Fill Company to operate the land fill operation on the Albany waterfront.

Albany Hill resident, Herbert Rubin, questioned Council members under "the good of the City," concerning precautions during the blasting operations at the Interstate General Development site on the Hill.

Volunteers Learn Precinct Workings

The first orientation meeting for Albany School Bond precinct workers will be held Wed., Oct. 17, at 8:30 p.m. in the Cornell School cafeteria.

Following a short general meeting, the mechanics of precinct work will be explained and the necessary material distributed.

All volunteers are urged to attend.

Pop Warner Bobcats Win Home Game

Albany's Pop Warner Football team, the Bobcats, triumphed over Fairfield, with a 20 to 6 win at Cougar Field last Saturday.

The Bobcats will play their last home game at Cougar Field Sunday, Oct. 21, when they meet El Sobrante at 1:30 p.m. They will have two more league games to play after Sunday's game.

He was informed by City Administrator James Turner that blasting had already been going on at the site for a week, and the blasting was so "controlled" it is not detectable except at the site itself.

Turner also noted that every precaution had been taken by the contractor, according to amendments made to the building permit, and that a six-million dollar insurance policy had also been taken out by him.

Proclamation

WHEREAS, the 1973 Veterans' Day Parade and Observance will be held Monday, October 22, 1973, and

WHEREAS, Alameda County, City of Hayward has been selected by the President's Veterans Day National Committee as one of the five (5) official Regional Observance areas for the Veterans Day parades in the United States; and

WHEREAS, the Alameda County Veterans' Day Committee has developed an outstanding parade in honor of the Vietnam era veterans, the POW's and those MIA's still held captive in Cambodia, and

WHEREAS, the MILITARY ORDER OF THE PURPLE HEART, with representatives from the National and California State Departments will serve as co-host,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, as Mayor of the City of Albany, and on behalf of its citizens, I proclaim the week of October 22, 1973, as "Veterans Week," in honor of those servicemen now in the Armed Services of the United States who stand as Freedom's Sentinel against tyranny and aggression throughout the world, and in honor of all those who have ever served in the Armed Services of the United States.

Washington Alumni Holds 46th Reunion

The Oakland Washington Grammar School's Alumni Association, will hold its 46th reunion at the Elegant Farmer, 34 Jack London Square, Oakland, Saturday, Oct. 20, beginning with a "happy hour" at 5:30 p.m., and followed by dinner at 8.

Graduates are urged to attend, and may make reservations by contacting Mrs. Vera Tindell Shattock, 655-2269; Mrs. Elsie Schlichting Madsen, 527-2904 or Mrs. Florence Ackerman Vose, 653-1323.

Spouses and children of graduates of the eighth grade during Charles Hudspeth's reign as principal are also cordially invited to attend. Mr. Hudspeth, who retired in 1942 after having been teacher and principal from 1904, was originator of the Alumni Association, and it was his written wish that the reunions be continued after his death, which occurred in 1968.

Please Save Your Campbell Labels

The Albany Primary Parent-Teacher Association is participating in a special program, sponsored by the Campbell Soup Company, and hopes, with the help of Albany residents, to collect over 3,000 soup labels by December 8, so they may obtain a cassette player-recorder and tapes.

To reach this goal they are asking everyone to save ALL Campbell soup labels, including those from Chunky Soups and the large 26 oz. cans of other Campbell soups. These labels may be dropped off at the Albany Primary School office, 607 Key Route Blvd., or arrangements may be made for pickup by calling 525-8577.

Other drop-off locations are the Albany Times office, 1240 Solano Ave., or Security Savings & Loan office, 1377 Solano.

Silver Star For '60 AHS Grad.

U.S. Air Force Capt. John D. Ellinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Ellinger of Garfield Ave., Albany, has been awarded the Silver Star, for gallantry as a B-52 Stratofortress aircraft commander, during the Vietnam War.

Capt. Ellinger received the medal, the nation's third highest decoration for heroism in combat, for his participation last December, in one of the largest conventional bombing raids in the recent history of aerial warfare against strategic targets in North Vietnam.

Facing surface-to-air missiles, anti-aircraft artillery and interceptor aircraft, the Air Force Capt. reached his target and dropped his ordnance with pinpoint accuracy. Although the heavy bomber sustained severe battle damage, Capt. Ellinger managed to fly the crippled ship to allied territory, where he and his fellow aircrew members bailed out and were rescued by allied forces.

A 1960 graduate of Albany High School, the Capt. earned a B.S. degree in biology at the University of California at San Francisco, before entering the Air Force in 1967.

He is married to the former Wendy Edwards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Edwards of El Cerrito. They are the parents of a daughter, Galen.

The Air Force Capt. is presently stationed at Loring Air Force Base in Maine, where he is serving at a B-52 instructor pilot with the Strategic Air Command's 69th Bomb Squadron.

Mechanics Bank New Assistant

Charles "Chuck" Silvera, manager of the Albany branch of Mechanics Bank, has announced the appointment of Stanley R. Adkins, Jr. as the branch's new assistant manager, replacing Art Meneghelli, who was recently transferred to the Bank's Mira Vista office.

The new assistant manager joined Mechanics Bank in 1964, following his graduation from De Anza High School, working in the night operations while attending Contra Costa College, where he received an Associates of Arts degree in Business Administration.

He also attended the American Institute of Banking School for specialized training in banking and has been in the Bank's management training program for the past three years, learning teller operations, personal and auto loans, as well as business and real estate loans.

Prior to joining the Albany branch, Adkins worked in the real estate department of the Bank's head office in Richmond.

He is a resident of Fairfield, where he resides with his wife, Sharon and their daughter Christine.

Parents Visit School Tonight

Tonight is the night being set aside by Albany Middle School teachers and PTA officers for their annual Back to School night. After a brief PTA meeting, starting at 7:30 p.m., there will be introductions of staff and other district personnel, with Superintendent Charles McCully speaking on the coming bond issue, Measure A. Parents will then go to their child's classroom to hear of the teachers' plans for the coming year.

All parents of Middle School children are urged to attend this important event.

NOTICE

There will be no Albany City Council meeting on Monday, October 22, or any time that week, as City officials will be attending the League of California Cities Conference in San Francisco, October 21 through 24.

City Proclamations and Ordinances Discussed

With only three Councilmen present (Councilman Hubert Call was still on vacation, and Councilman Richard Clark was absent), City business was handled in short order at the October 9 Council meeting.

At the request of Sam Dows, chairman of the Albany United Nations Committee a proclamation will be issued recognizing October 24 as "United Nations Day" in Albany. A request from the Alameda County Veterans' Day Committee, for the Mayor to proclaim the week of October 22 as "Veterans' Week," was also unanimously approved by Council members.

The appointment of two new City employees was also approved by the Council—Judith Herwood was appointed to replace Policewoman-Clerk, Judi Frakes, who resigned, and Charles Genova was appointed to a probationary position in the entrance level of Maintenance in the Street Dept.

A communication from Mr. and Mrs. Robert Scharpf of Washington Street, objecting to the use of Golden Gate Fields for motorcycle racing, was referred to an upcoming meeting the Council will hold with Golden Gate Fields' officials.

A communication from Administrative Officer James Turner, regarding the resurfacing of Marin Ave. and other City streets, giving a first progress report and recommending payment representing completion of 85 percent of the work was approved and Ordinances No. 73-08 and 73-09 had their second readings and were "passed to print."

Approval was also given to the report covering the cost for "weed abatement" in the City for the year 1973-74; and the Council requested the City Administrator to investigate the condition of trash receptacles on Solano Ave. to see if residents are using them to deposit their garbage. A complaint had been received from a resident of the 1000 block, stating that the receptacles could possibly be breeding places for rats.

During the discussion, the Mayor requested that all citizens be reminded that under a City ordinance, all households must have garbage service, and that the street receptacles were for litter only.

Council members also requested that Administrative Officer Turner contact the Scavenger Company with a request that they keep a closer watch on the pickup from these containers.

New School Plans Would Eliminate Overcrowding

Gallant, old Marin School has been demolished because it was pronounced by the State as "earthquake unsafe." The small site (2.66 acres) was dominated by the old 47,717 sq. ft. pinkedifice that served so many for so long... fifty-seven years. Kindergarten through seventh grade crammed as many as 700 students together and challenged youngsters from 5 to 13 to somehow play together on that single, sloping area of asphalt playground.

Mourning over the demise of Marin has subsided in anticipation of an exciting new Marin, construction will begin soon for occupancy next Fall. The new 14-classroom Marin is a smaller school (26,552 sq. ft.), planned to house 460 students (Kindergarten-fifth) in single story buildings that fit comfortably on the site and form adequate play areas.

The imaginative new school is grouped into units of three classrooms with movable partitions. Each shares a common work area, a centrally-located multi-media center (library), and a multi-use room with platform and serving kitchen.

Construction has been financed by a loan from the State of California in its commitment to help school districts replace unsafe buildings. The Marin project is separate from the $1,620,000 bond proposal before the community on November 6.

Cornell school has also housed Kindergarten through seventh grade classes on an equally small (2.66 acres) site, again crowding as many as 700 students into classrooms and onto an inadequate playground. The State has pronounced the old auditorium, two-story west classroom wing and school office spaces earthquake-unsafe. They are scheduled for demolition.

The open space thus created will be left open. A two-story link between the existing east and north wings will be built. This connecting link will have two classrooms and new boiler room on its ground floor and three classrooms on its second floor. The present District Administration offices will become the Cornell School offices, staff work room, and special-purpose rooms. The resultant L-shaped two-story building will also house 480 students, Kindergarten through fifth, and existing playground space will be increased substantially.

The demolition and new construction planned for Cornell is part of Measure A on the November 6th ballot. The other and larger segment of Measure A will finance part of the construction of a 6-7-8 grade school on 5½ acres of Gill Tract land. (The land will be purchased with a State loan). The proposed single-story Middle School will provide facilities and an educational program tailored to the unique needs of this age group.

Three clusters of six classrooms will each share a central area. This area will accommodate the equipment necessary for a flexible curriculum for pre- and early-teens. A multi-media center will house learning aids. A multi-purpose room will serve as gym and food service area. Grounds will include paved courts, courtyards and ball fields.

Preliminary architectural studies have been drawn for the schools. They can be viewed at the school district offices, 904 Talbot, on weekdays.

This article was prepared by Wm. Corlett, the School District Architect, in an effort to explain each school site and approximate enrollment.

The Mail Bag

Editor, Albany Times
Dear Editor:

In November, 1972, we, the citizens of Albany, were asked to approve a $3.1 million state loan and school bond proposal. That proposal was narrowly defeated.

In June of 1973 we were again asked to vote on a bond measure in the amount of $2.79 million. Once again the majority voted yes, but because a two-thirds "yes" vote was required, the measure failed.

Now we are being asked to consider another bond proposal in the amount of $1,620,000. Even though this bond proposal is much less than the previous ones, people of the bond, together with the state loan, will assure that our children are housed in safe and adequate schools.

The most valuable asset our children can have is a good education. Our children must attend classes in safe buildings. We now have the opportunity to improve our educational facilities and provide safe schools for Albany students. I urge my fellow citizens to consider what Measure A on the November ballot will mean to the children of Albany, and the City of Albany.

Sincerely,
Dorothy M. Brown

'Haunted House' To Open Oct. 20

Five East Bay Chapters of Children's Home Society are being aided by the El Cerrito Chamber of Commerce and many El Cerrito Plaza merchants, in the construction, decoration and sponsoring of the "Spook Rooms" in the third annual Haunted House, which will open Sat., Oct. 20, at the south end of the Plaza.

This popular Halloween attraction, which was visited by over 9,000 people of all ages last year, will be open weekdays from 3 to 8 p.m. and on weekends and Veterans' Day from 11 a.m. to 8 p.m. Admission is 50 cents per person. It is not recommended for children under 6 years of age.

The "House" consists of seven rooms, decorated in keeping with the Halloween theme, and featuring "live" attractions. The rooms include: "Out of

This World," "Gypsy Fortune Teller," "The Good Witch," "Monster Mash," "The Maze" and "The Hunchback."

Proceeds from the House will be used to support the counseling and adoption services offered by the Children's Home Society. These services include professional counseling for pregnant women concerned over their own and their babies' future, temporary foster care for children needing adoption, and assistance to couples.

Albany Resident Joins Local Red Cross Staff

Miss Georgia Silveira of Albany has joined the staff of the Berkeley-Albany Red Cross Chapter as program assistant to Miss Joan Campbell, newly-appointed assistant manager of the Chapter.

Miss Silveira's responsibilities will be in the area of Red Cross Youth, services and programs.

Miss Silveira graduated from Albany High School in 1958. She earned her B.A. in Sociology from San Francisco State College and will receive her Master's degree in Psychiatric Social Work in January. She has had extensive experience working with youth including positions with the Richmond Recreation Department and the Alameda County Human Resources Agency.

Miss Campbell, formerly Safety Programs director of the Berkeley-Albany Red Cross Chapter, returned in her new capacity after a year at National Red Cross headquarters where she served as Community Education and Health Officer.

Members of the Albany Parent Nursery are busy preparing for their 3rd annual Halloween Carnival, set for Saturday, Oct. 27.

The event, which will be held at the Albany Community Center in University Village, will feature lots of fun games, booths, home baked goodies, greenery, contests and even a haunted house

Those planning to attend the affair, which will be in operation from 4 to 8 p.m., may stay for dinner and enjoy foods from many lands as well as health foods and (of course) the always-popular hot dog. Prizes will also be awarded for the best children's and adult's costumes. A nice way for a family to celebrate Halloween. Everyone is invited to participate.

UN Observances Planned By City

Lewis M. Howell, Mayor of Albany, has proclaimed October 24, 1973 UNITED NATIONS Day. The Albany UN Day Committee, headed by Col. Sam Dows, has invited all churches and civic organizations in Albany to give appropriate recognition to the great organization which has guided us safely through the Cold War, has contained the many b rush-fire wars, and has successfully averted WWII for 28 years.

In Albany High School, a Committee comprising Pamela Shavers, Cynthia Freeman and Lorrie Shaw is arranging UN Week displays. The Albany UN Day Committee has placed a colorful display in the lobby of the City Hall.

The United Nations General Assembly is currently in its 28 General Session. Prominent on the Agenda are many items of critical concern to the world. The General Assembly has added three member nations—West Germany, East Germany and The Bahamas, bringing the total to 133 nations. Problems of disarmament, peacekeeping, terrorism, tensions in the Middle East, apartheid, and human rights will be debated. Legal and technical matters include the law of the seas, the fight against pollution of air and water, the population explosion, the struggle to prevent hunger, and the concern for human rights. Three social questions concern: the elderly and aged;

Hand Signals

Timely Lessons For Our Young Area Bicyclists

By JOHN T. FORD,
Albany Police Dept.
Bicycle Detail

One very important practice bicyclists frequently overlook is giving proper hand signals before making a turn to change directions.

As I have said in previous lessons, when you are riding a bicycle you must follow the same rules as any other driver does. For instance: if you are riding a bicycle down the right hand side of the street and decide that you will turn left at the next corner, you must give the proper signal for a left turn to let the drivers behind you know what you intend to do. If you were to turn left on your bike, without giving the proper hand signal, the driver behind you might try to pass you and if you crossed in front of him —it could mean BIG TROUBLE FOR YOU!

If you haven't been using these signals, practice them first while standing still, then start immediately to use them while riding your bike in any street or road where there is traffic. When you do this you will find that auto drivers will the world social situation of youth; and crime prevention and control.

As the General Assembly gets under way, the Security Council has been called to deal with the current conflict in the Middle East. Immediate action is concentrated on a cease-fire. The long-range concern is to reconcile conflicts of interest. In this vital endeavor, the UN must have popular support.

The objectives of UN Week observations are to focus attention of the vast works of the UN, to gain understanding of its potential for peacekeeping and to achieve popular support for the many world-wide programs.

be courteous to you and you will have a lot fewer "close calls."

Always remember that an automobile travels at a higher rate of speed than a bike — therefore, you must give your signals in plenty of time for the motorist behind you to react to them. Never wait to start your signal when you are ready to make a turn or stop, because a car traveling behind you, even at slow speed, cannot react to your signal on such short notice. It is best to give your hand signal after you pass the middle of the block if you plan to turn at the next corner. Also, remember—if the driver behind you blows his horn—that means he cannot slow down in time to let you make your turn. So, you must wait until he has passed you before making your turn.

It is best to remember to ALWAYS use your hand signals, even if you are on a street with little or no traffic, because you never know when another driver will come up behind you quickly, before you have a chance to notice him.

QUESTIONS

The proper hand signal to indicate your intention to turn LEFT is to extend your arm straight out.

The proper hand signal to indicate your intention to turn RIGHT is to extend your left arm out, away from the body, and down. The left arm should be held out and up to show your intention to make a right turn. (From shoulder to elbow, straight out, from elbow to hand, straight up). To show your intention to stop, you must extend your LEFT

Free Training and Recreation For Blind Children and Young Adults

The California League for the Handicapped, a non-profit agency offering counseling, job placement, transportation and recreation for blind and multi-handicapped children and adults from the Bay Area, is accepting registrations for its fall program of free recreation and training for both children and young adults who are totally blind or have limited vision.

Groups, ranging in age from arm slightly out away from your body, and down.

Automobiles travel much faster than bicycles, therefore a bicyclist must give hand signals well before he actually is ready to make a turn.

It is all right to make a turn, without giving a hand signal, if you see no traffic coming.

When riding on a country road it is all right to forget about hand signals.

Using hand signals prevents accidents because the signals tell motorists what you are going to do.

NEXT WEEK: Electric Traffic Signals.

6 to 18, meet Wednesday afternoons and Saturday mornings, with part-time volunteer instructors teaching physical education, arts and crafts, and self improvement.

Training is also offered in a wide range of activities, including: swimming, folk dancing, cooking, tumbling, grooming and daily living skills.

Special behind-the-scenes tours are being planned to the California Academy of Sciences, De Young Museum, Exploratorium and the San Francisco Maritime Historic Park.

Free transportation is available for those participating in the program. For further information, please call the League office, 668-5151.

Albany High School News

By SCOTT ACORN
Informer News Bureau

Albany High's new dean has been established himself with the faculty as a hard worker and some very traditional beliefs. Mr. Gary eGarhardt was chosen for the position by a student administration-faculty-student committee last June. He was previously taught, administered, and coached in the Granada Hills area in Los Angeles.

"Stage Door," a circa 1940 comedy has been chosen for AHS's fall stage production. Director Dusty Heisabeck chose the play, "because it has a lot of actors, and I admire one of its authors, George S. Kaufman."

Performances have been scheduled for the evenings of Friday, November 16 and Saturday, November 17.

Albany's football Cougars evened their record at 2-2 with a 25-20 win over Rheem Valley's Campolindo Cougars. It was Albany's biggest offensive game in two seasons, as the Cougars piled up 412 yards and four touchdowns.

Wide receiver Dan Patterson racked up 178 yards and three touchdowns on nine catches, while quarterback Brad Drennan rolled up 301 yards of total offense, capped by an 84 yard touchdown run. Linebackers Bill Rounds and Kevin McKenna led the tough Cougar defense who completely stopped Campolindo in the second half.

Albany Pool Swim Classes

The new Parents and Tots Swimming program for the Fall began yesterday, Oct. 16, with classes being held on Tuesdays and Thursdays, from 3 to 3:30 or 3:30 to 4 p.m.

Parents will work with their own child, on a one-to-one relationship. Youngsters 4 months to 4 years are eligible for these classes. Fee is $6 for 10 lessons and will be prorated for those starting late.

Celesthenes in the Water classes began last Monday, and will be held each Monday and Wednesday, from 3:15 to 4:15 p.m., with fee at $5.40 for 9 lessons also prorated.

For further information, please call the pool director, Mrs. Audrey Whiteman, at 526-7386.

The Pool will be closed on Veterans' Day, October 22.

Local Winners In Ball Competition

Approximately 50 local area boys participated in the recent "Punt, Pass and Kick" competition, co-sponsored by the Albany Parks and Recreation Dept. and the Jim Woulfe Ford agency in Albany, held recently at Feeney Field.

The contest was open to youngsters eight through 13 years of age, who competed against others in their own age category only. All were judged in the three activities before the winners were selected.

Judges for the competition were Don Dupin of the Albany Parks and Recreation Dept., and John Bireland of Jim Woulfe Ford.

Winners were: Brian E. Nichols, 8 year age group; Jamie Lipnosky, 9 years; Jeff H. Elchner III, 10 years; Frankie

Library Receives Needed Equipment

Friends of Kensington Library have purchased a 16mm movie projector, a Wollensak cassette recorder with eight head sets, a projector cart, and a movie screen, for use by the Kensington Library. The purchase was largely financed from funds from the used book

Senior Citizens Invited to Dance

Old-fashioned waltzes, fox-trots, three step and other dances will be featured at a Senior Citizens' Dance, at St. Paul House, 116 Montecito Ave. in Oakland, from 1 to 4 p.m., Thurs., Oct. 18.

Dance music will be provided by an orchestra consisting of retired professional musicians, who have played in various "name bands" during their long musical careers.

A donation of 50 cents per person will be asked, and refreshments will be served. All senior citizens are welcome, especially men.

These dances will be held continuously on the first and third Thursday of the month. For further information, please call Joseph Rogers, 893-2571.
